F. W. Louis, the galian feuton, upon whom the mantle of the mmortal Barbour did not descend, was speciated Grand Marshal of the occa-Woolly's" beer-house, opposite the reenlaw, some four or five other white scalawags, who, after swilling a couple tegs of lager and borrowing the flag of the Turn Verein, started off on horseback to assemble the cans. They charged around the pur least of the city, blowing their horn-and drinking at every negro doggery until nearly nightfall. The hundreds of die negroes that throng the "free of Fort Pickering, the Opera House, the County Court, and other quality popular localities, were notified and sent to the meeting places, and grand torchlight procession improvised Louis did not, in the arder of the preparations, forget the Injunctions of ol Rabelais, and drank often and deep at very scalawag beer house when is had credit for a drink. The con-equence was, that long ere dark hower well slewed, and felt himself a Cencaur in point of horsemanship, and aveilant as Hector or Julius Carar. While careering and cavorting along S cond street, near the corner of E w Court, in this bappy rame of mind, he aw some ladies and children on the kill and bravery by charging his horse nto them and riding them down. So, houting the battle cry of "Pill Schtokes and Crant. Hoursh for h-ll; who gares or vire!" be stuck spurs into his charge, and made at the terrified party. Luckly for them, however, the brute shied a ething, and ran against a lamp-post dinging "F. W." the valliant, forty fee ver his head, and landing him in a soft put on the Nicoolson pavement. RADICAL CHICANERY.

Voters.

Hundreds of White Men Unable to get their R gistraton Papers.

The officer appointed by Brownlow to register the voters of Shelby county. yesterday evening closed his office, and unced the registration for the coming ton at an end.

By a well and cuaningly laid scheme he registration has been so managed throughout, as to enrol and furnish ceroficates to every Radical voter, white and negre, in the county, while, under the pretext of having "no blanks," hundreds of hard working, honest white men have been kept waiting from day to for their registration, only to be swindled out of it sitogether in the end. From an early hour Monday morning, all that day, and all day yesierday, the hall of the County Court House was throughd with mechanics and laborers, men that could ill-aff rd to lose an hour rom the labor that under the grinding Radical taxes, barely carns them a supfor their turn to come to obtain their papers. But the Registrar was too well trilled and instructed ever to let that turn come, and when the bour for closing the office approached, bundreds were penied to go away unregistered, stant action seould be taken to compel this Radical official to complete a regisration begun and carried on by him wholly in the interests of the party of which he is the supple and pliant tool. We heartily indorse the following call, which is signed by some of the best of our laboring citizens. White men of Memphis! Are you going to allow a single man, the tool of a party, to rob you oft he dearest and last of your rights, and you stand idly and quietly by? Arouse and come forth in the true orit of Democracy, and FORCE HIM TO HIS DUTY!

LETTER FROM CHURCHMAN. Editors Appeal: Permit me to occupy a small space to your journal once more, and for the last time, to regard to the atbr. Wheat. I have no desire to enter int a co. roversy with Mr. Rogers on any subject, and had he not assailed Dr Wheat in his absence, I should not have written a line, for I thinkscandal enough has resulted from Mr. Rogers' course to satisfy even orm. As for his reply in This is simply infamous, and some in-this is simply infamous, and some in-ant action should be taken to compal self fully substantiates all I said the day before, and if he is satisfied with his explanation in regard to his uncalled for attack on Dr. Wheat, I am sure that I am, for he jumps the question entirely and thesoff in an attempt to justify his course and connection with the Southern Orphan Asylum, the result of which may be summed up thus; that Mr. Rogers refred-according to his own figures-$10,000 lu money, a note for $6000; mat Mr Farrington is a " noble agent for any man," (which I certainly am not disposed to deny,) and that somebody ught to be in the penitentiary, according to the charter of the said Orphan Asylum, which I also am not going to

Now, as for the matter of the salary due him from St. Lezarus, will Mr. Rogers assert positively—no dodging or evading the question—that the Parish of St. Laz rus owes him a cent? It is untoubtedly true that there was considerable delay in paying him for his first quarter, owing to the "fearful pecuniary oruggle going on here." And, more-over, as he had left the Overton, according to his own statement, flush with greenbacks and gone to Europe, taking als numerous off-prings, leaving us under the impression that money was no object with nim; and so he had written back among other things that H. I. M., Na-poleon III, had given bim an appoint-ment of honor and profit. And if the vestry were a little slow in the matter of forwarding the $600 in greenbacks to one Napoleon III, and had left here a few months before with "shekels of green-backs," they were certainly excusable. But then came that "angry letter," which, for the sake of the church, had better never have been mentioned, and the money, to the lest farthing owed him, was duly forwarded.
